LIGHT AND SHADOW

GAME TYPE:
Deciphering role-playing

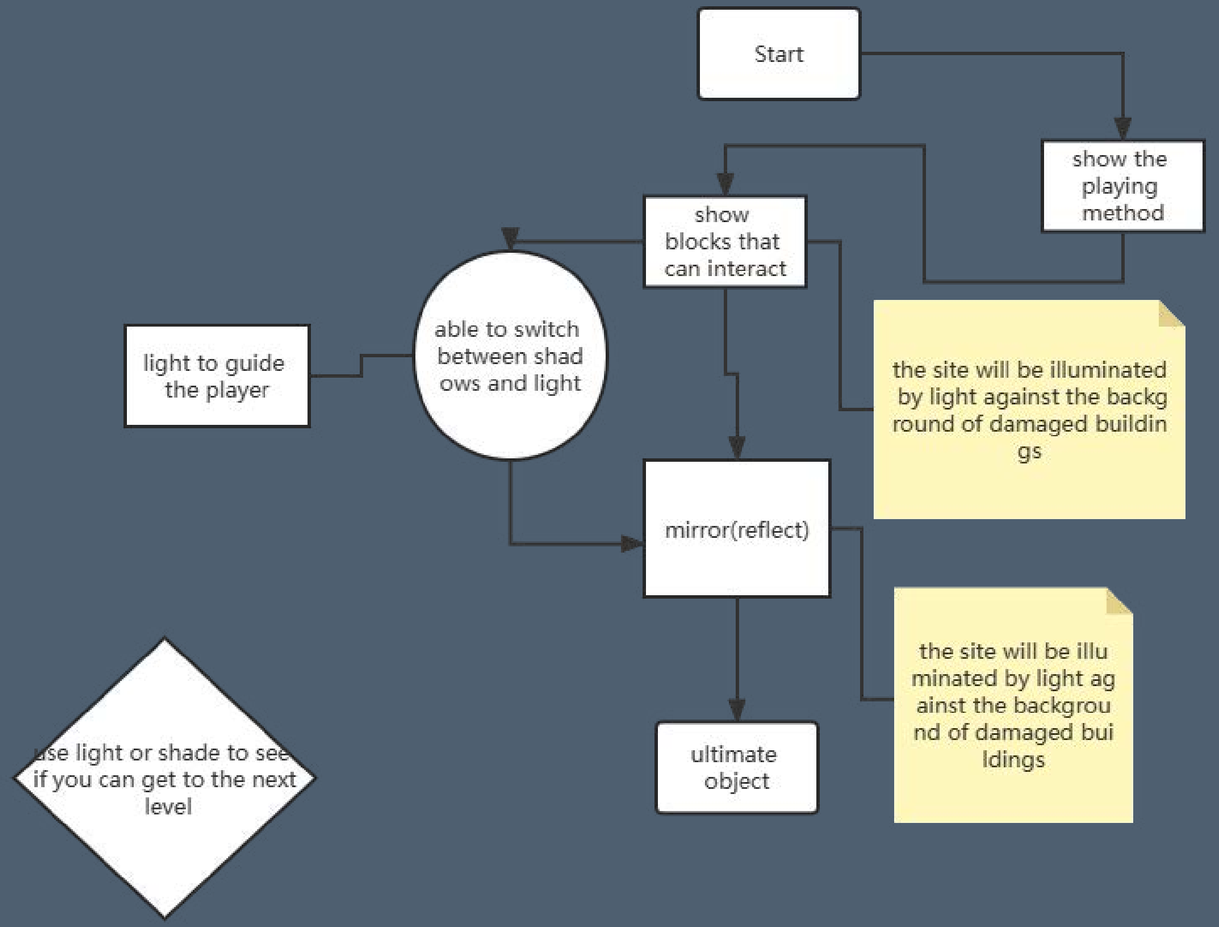

Game background:
After tens of thousands of years, with the continuous destruction of the natural environment by human beings, the surface of the earth that is destroyed by the environment is only wind sand and earth and stone, and human beings are forced to be transferred to the underground life. Light and darkness became companions for the humans living underground. And all these years people have been fighting for territory with a mimicry, not very powerful but very intelligent.

Main character: The main character is a pioneer who needs to find new caves in other naturally formed underground caves to expand his race's land.

PLAY&TEST FEEDBACK

ADVANTAGES:

1. IS THERE A GOOD GUIDE FOR THE PLAYER TO SEE WHAT NEEDS TO BE DONE
2. THE GAMEPLAY IS RELATIVELY SIMPLE AND EASY TO GET STARTED WITHOUT VERY DIFFICULT OPERATIONS
3. THE GAMEPLAY FLOW CAN MAKE THE PLAYER FEEL NEW AND NOT BORING

POINTS TO BE IMPROVED:

1. SOME ONLY CERTAIN COLORS CAN DO CERTAIN THINGS
2. SOME AREAS OF THE LEVEL ARE TOO PROMINENT AND SOME AREAS ARE TOO SMALL TO MAKE THE MAP FEEL STRANGE TO THE PLAYER
3. THE FEELING THAT THERE ARE NO PLACES TO INTERACT AND THE MAP IS SO SMALL THAT THE PLAYER HAS THE ILLUSION
4. THE FEEDBACK OF LIGHT IN THE CAVE IS TOO STRONG AND TOO BRIGHT, RESULTING IN THE APPEARANCE OF NOT BEING IN THE CAVE
